

Call for Applicants - FIWMD temporary casual labor

Posted March 4, 2024

Summary

Fishers Island Waste Management District (FIWMD) is looking for temporary casual labor to work at both the Compost and Transfer Stations performing a range of light and heavy manual tasks.

Qualifications and Skills

Conscientious and friendly with customers and fellow team members, excellent time management, adaptability, and willingness to take initiative.

Time Commitment

Minimum 12 hours a week, with flexibility to cover additional shifts at short notice.

Initial schedule of Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday mornings, with potential to increase based on availability and need.

Compensation and Terms

Starting at $22/hour

Contact + Application Process

Beth Stern, FIWMD Business and Administration Manager
fiwastemanagement@gmail/631 788 7455.

Rolling application process. The first qualified applicant with the earliest availability will be given preference.