FIWMD Station Operator

Summary

Fishers Island Waste Management District (FIWMD) is looking for help with station facilities and heavy equipment operation and maintenance. You will report to the FIWMD manager. You will also be cross trained to operate both our Transfer and Compost Stations as an attendant where you will be assisting and educating customers in separating materials properly, correctly operating compactors, and maintaining compost piles.

Qualifications and Skills

- valid driver's license and experience operating heavy equipment
- experience operating heavy equipment and power tools
- ability to perform routine machine maintenance and repairs
- ability to plow, paint, carry out minor repairs, etc.
- proficiency in welding is a plus
- conscientious and friendly with customers and fellow team members
- adaptable and willing to take initiative
- excellent time management
- ability to maintain daily logs for equipment use, maintenance, repairs, orders, parts, including on a computer in digital format
- Being a good team member is a must

Time Commitment

Full time/Weekends

Compensation and Terms

Commensurate with experience

Full benefits after probationary period

How to apply

https://www.indeed.com/viewjob?jk=f31dd5488ec6f0f9